

BIO

Angeles Chanaha

Angeles was born in Buenos Aires, Argentina. She started dancing at the age of 5 and throughout her career she has studied a variety of dance styles (Argentine Tango, Folklore, Rock'n'Roll, Ballet, Modern).

Growing up in the heart of real Tango world, she has practiced one particular style - Argentine Tango - to it's perfection. As a result her list of dance partners includes two of the most famous Tango performers in the world: Miguel Angel Zotto - creator of "Tango X Dos"- and Carlos Gavito -Tony Award Winner from a Broadway hit "Forever Tango".

Angeles also performed on stage with the renowned singer Julio Iglesias, she has been featured on national TV (channel 11, channel 13), in international films, commercials, and fashion magazines, all related to tango.

From 1998 she was involved in every "Buenos Aires International Tango Festival", the world's largest annual event which attracts the best Tango dancers. She has also performed in multiple shows in Latin and South America (including the most prestigious show in Argentina "Senor Tango") as well as toured around United States. Among other tango orchestras, Angeles has danced for "Los Cosos de al Lao" at the famous "Cafe Tortoni" in the city of Buenos Aires.

In 2003 Angeles created and choreographed the tango show "Tango en los Andes" for "Che Tango Company", which had a huge success in Mendoza, Argentina.

As a one a kind dancer, Angeles expresses sensuality and elegance, as well as represents woman's character in Tango.
